1. The Liga Anticomunista de las Naciones Oprimidas de Europa (Anti-Communist League of Oppressed Nations of Europe), which was recently organized among the Slav colony in Argentina, is virtually Ustasha-dominated. For this reason no Poles, Serbs, or Slovenes are represented in the League.
2. The following men formulate the League's policies and direct its activities:
 - a. Padre Blas Stefanic, President (cf. SO-12566);
 - b. Dr. (fnu) Turina - Consul General in Vienna under Ante Pavelic;
 - c. Alexander Seitz (cf. SO-12566);
 - d. Milo (Miho) Tolj - Chief of the Office of Information under Pavelic.

25X1A

Although the League's existence has been publicized in newspapers in Argentina, the fact that it is primarily a Ustasha group has not been revealed. Composed of a number of small societies made up of nationals of satellite countries, it publishes its own bulletin, Deminform, which appears in the English and Spanish languages.
